

Manx Tapes Summaries

MT64A Manx Myths & More by Dennis W. Turner

A collection of modern narrative rhyming verse which; whilst telling a story, imparts without question, the author's love of the Isle of Man. He tells ancient Manx stories which have been passed down through the centuries and mixes them with poetic comment on modern events and present day situations.

MT65U Manx Blind Welfare Society 75th Booklet MBWS

MT66U Manx Blind Welfare Society 75th Booklet MBWS

MT67U A Manx Volunteer through two World Wars by Bridget Carter

An epic poem created by Bridget Carter and read onto CD by the Honourable Noel Cringle OBE, based on true events and telling the story of a 14 year old boy who had lied about his age to enable him to fight for his country in WW1. He later went on to fight a 2nd time in WW2 with his sons.

MT68U Purt Le Moirrey Schooners Manx Poetry by Ambrose Maddrell

AMBROSE MADDRELL was born at Glenchass in 1889, like many of his generation he left school soon after his twelfth birthday to go as cook on a fishing "nickey" yet, in spite of his meagre schooling, he was a "fair scholar", and remarkably well informed and well read. He sailed with the herring fleet and on the schooners in his youth and all his poems ring true, for they are based on fact and actual personal experience.

MT69U Manx Myths & More by Dennis W. Turner

A collection of modern, narrative, rhyming verse; which whilst telling a story, imparts without question, the author's love of the Isle of Man. He tells ancient Manx stories which have been passed down through the centuries and mixes them with poetic comment on modern events and present day situations.

----- Numerical order 16/04/18